Highlights

We have successfully taught our first year of the Open Court reading program.

Construction has begun on a district Performing Arts Auditorium that will seat 700+ students.

Our district has made incredible progress toward our goal of having 90% of our students on grade level, as indicated by the ISAT, in reading, language, and math by 2007. We are nearly there and plan to continue to our momentum once we have reached our goal. Through the dedication and hard work of wonderful teachers and support staff, we are able to offer a first rate educational experience for all of our students!

Progress Towards Meeting Goals

2004-05 Goals

By 2007, 90% of our students will be on grade level in Reading, Language, and Math as is indicated by ISAT results

Math will become a curricular focus for the 2006-07 school year

District Fine Arts program will be strengthened.

Students will come to school prepared to learn.

Progress

Our Elementary Spring 2006 ISAT scores indicate that 89% of our students are proficient in Language, 89% are proficient in Reading, and 95 % of our students are proficient in Math

We are adopting a new math program in our elementary in the Fall of 06. Students prove proficiency with automaticity in basic functions (X, /, +, -) by the end of 5th grade. Middle school math prepares students to successfully take Algebra as Freshmen. High School will push all students to take Algebra in one year with the support of a math lab to ensure that concepts are understood.

Construction has begun on a 700+ seat fine arts auditorium.

Our school board has approved a district-wide "Preparedness Policy". This policy states that students will come to school regularly and be on time, have homework completed, and come prepared to learn. Administrators and teachers support this policy by following specific interventions that include: personal contact with the home, parent-school -student conferences with a contract, and attendance at after school remediation programs.
